Parties affected by the decision are commencing to get ready for the situation. Some of the Tammuny aspirants for offices to be voted upon in the fall are already the Sixth Ward, Thomas J. Creamer appears to have presumed that the mise of his nomination for Senator by the Tammany leaders would, as a matter of course, secure his election; but he now finds that the strength of opposing candidates leaves his chances in some doubt.

The action of the Citizens' Committee, in excluding reporters from its meetings, is received with dissatisfac tion. It is chought that an investiga tion of what is alleged to be secret frauds should have no secresy about its own proceedings.
